Spoken english test questions and answers pdf.

Yeah, can you tell me how much this is? There was hardly anybody there. While you are eating, the waiter/waitress will often come to your table and ask this question to check if you need anything. Actually, I'm still waiting for my side dish. I do volunteer work. I've been taking it easy. I've been working a lot. 9. Yes - do you have this in a larger size? I don't have any free time! I usually hang out with friends. A "side dish" is a small portion of food that accompanies the main meal. I can't complain. Iced tea, please. No thanks - I think we're just about done. Almost - I just have a couple of questions. I'm retired now. I'm not feeling so good. For work. Mostly studying. "To start off" means you are ordering an appetizer (small amount of food eaten before the main meal). Why are you studying English? Learn more about the Speaking Course So I can communicate when I travel. Just the check, please. It was terrible. The "check" is the list of items and the total price to pay. I took classes for three years. Yes - where are the try-on rooms? / Do you need any help? "Hang out" means to spend time in an informal way. Did you like the movie? "Try-on rooms" means the place where you can put on the clothes to see if they are the right size and if you like them. "Nope" is an informal way to say "No." 3. The most common way to order food is to say "I'll have..." Uh-huh. Score: 0% Rank: Correct Answer: Start Quiz >> Everyday English Speaking Course Sometimes, even when you know a lot of English, you can have difficulty finding the right words or phrases to answer simple questions. I love learning new languages. How are things with you? You can say you're feeling "awful" for both physical and emotional pain. 10. I've been studying on my own. Not bad. "Pouring" means raining very heavily. Here are 20 of the most common questions in English - each one with five sample responses. In this context, "picked it up" means "learned it casually." My girlfriend taught me. To be honest, my food is kinda cold. 11. "Could we have..." is a polite way to ask for something. Can I help you? It's pouring - take an umbrella. 2. I like reading and relaxing at home. I go running a lot. Nothing much. / How's the weather? I'm divorced. 13. Will it take long? Could I have a look at the dessert menu? How was your day? Is everything OK? Yes, I'll have a Caesar salad and then the baked chicken with potatoes. Nothing for me, thanks. "A quarter" is 15 minutes - so this means "11:45" Let me check my phone. This question means "What have you been doing recently?" - you can answer it in the present perfect continuous. Small, but fun. Not quite - I think we need a little more time. "Humid" means there is a lot of water vapor in the air. Super busy. "Packed" means it was crowded; there were very many people there. "Decaf coffee" is coffee with no caffeine. The correct way is "thinking of studying" and not "thinking to study." 4. Really awful. The phrasal verb "found out" means "discovered or heard some new information." I'd rather not talk about it. A total nightmare. Because I'd like to immigrate to the U.S. I'm thinking of studying in England. Are you married? Gorgeous - a perfect summer day! It's quite cold - make sure to bundle up. This means "relaxing, not doing anything intense or stressful." Planning my summer vacation. I'm engaged - we're getting married next year. How was the party? Great! Couldn't be better! This means that everything is excellent. This means that nothing particularly special or interesting happened during the day. 5. Really good! Pretty uneventful. The word "run" means you are the primary person responsible for operating the business. "Browsing" means looking casually at the items. "Retired" means you have stopped working (usually after you are 60 or 65 years old). To "order" means to ask the waiter/waitress for the food you want to eat. "Chilly" means a little bit cold. Sorry, I don't know. No, but I'm in a relationship. Normally when people ask "how's it going?" they expect a positive response like "fine" or "good." If you say "Do you really wanna know?" it means that things are going badly, but you are not sure if the other person wants to listen to your problems or not. I run my own business. Of course! I'd be glad to. / Do you have the time? Are you ready to order? Nope, I'm single. Oh, I'm just having a rough day. Boring - I couldn't wait to get outta there. I used to be an engineer. This means "can you help me?" - often with a physical task like moving furniture or carrying a box. I'll have a slice of apple pie. 20. Restaurant Questions 17. What time is it? It was fantastic. How are you feeling? A little chilly - you might wanna bring a jacket. It's half past four. 18. Great! Never better. 7. You can also say "studying by myself." I picked it up from movies and songs. This means "What's the problem?" - you can ask it to someone who appears sad or upset. It's ten o'clock. What's the weather like? This means that things are OK. "Specials" are featured dishes that might also have a discount. Fine. Yes, everything's fine, thanks. Two decaf coffees, please. Where/How did you learn English? I'm unemployed at the moment. General Questions 1. No thanks, I'm just browsing. A "slice" is a single piece of a pie, cake, or pizza. I did an intensive course. 15. What are the specials today? I'm all right. Hot and humid. Could you heat it up? 14. No. I didn't think it lived up to the hype. What have you been up to lately? Sure - just a sec. It's one of the best I've ever seen. Could we see the wine list? Shopping & Social Questions 8. Very productive. Do you really wanna know? What would you like to drink? Sorry - I'm a bit busy at the moment. 12. 6. What do you do in your free time? To start off, we'll split an order of nachos. What do you have? It wasn't bad. It's all delicious! Could we have some more water, please? It was a good time. Yes, I've been married for two years now. Just water for me. Can I get you anything else? This question means "What is your job/profession?" I'm a student. A "rough day" means a difficult, bad day. This means the movie was not as good as its publicity presented. Can you give me a hand? I work in a bank. This means "just a second" - you need the other person to wait one moment before you can help them. Describing an experience as a "nightmare" means it was horrible. Crazy - it was absolutely packed. What's the matter? Yeah, I'm looking for something under $30. A "nightmare" is a terrible, scary dream. I just found out my mother's in the hospital. "Bundle up" means to wear warm clothing for protection against the cold. Like I need a vacation. 19. What do you do? This means "4:30" It's a quarter to twelve. This means "I'd prefer not to talk about it." Nothing, I'm fine. 16. The waiter/waitress will probably ask you this after you have finished eating. This is a question that you might hear from an employee or salesperson in a store. A little depressed. "To be honest..." is a diplomatic way to introduce a complaint or negative comment. "Split" means that two or more people will share/divide one order of food. How's it going?
